Audience Polls

Is Flock working as our communication platform?

Group Decision:
Let’s keep trying it. All new technologies have learning curves!

Achievements

- Network building
- Dissemination
- EDC technical report: Towards One Health Preparedness

Communications

Please note you need to register and submit and then the video will begin. (This helps us to see how many people have viewed it.)
2. SHARE an experience crossing disciplines

Jerri Husch, PhD

- If OH is to be comprehensive, aligned between actors and actions etc., there is a need for new management methods and tools. Jerri Husch will give a quick overview of "Action Insights" as a practical method that helps link across sectors—and supports the use of integrated evidence for decision making.

* If you have something to share at future meetings, please contact: ohss@onehealthcommission.org
