Priorities based on initial survey

Please prioritize the actions listed below as low, medium, or high priority for group action.

Potential avenues based on group feedback

- Global One Health ambassador program
- Educational program: teaching opportunities & OH-SS curriculum
- Activities to promote veterinary perspective on social sciences & culture change

Potential avenues based on group feedback (continued)

- Knowledge, perception, action: community-based approach
- Map social science actors
- Establish a common language
- Integrated method to demonstrate linkages between sectors
- TEDx talks or OHC YouTube channel
- Social media: Facebook, LinkedIn

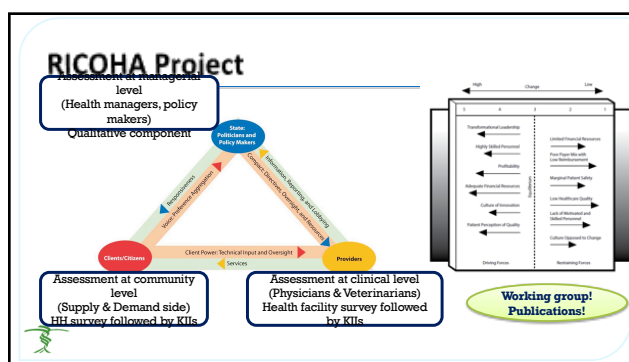

Workgroup ideas

- Sandul Yasobant: Collaboration on PhD project in India
- Helena Chapman: OH-SS publication
- Séverine Thys (Hans Keune and Aurélie Binot): Organization of a session on social science/transdisciplinarity at the "Creating impact for One Health and Ecohealth: advancements in implementation, evaluation, and governance" conference in Bologna, Italy

Sandul Yasobant - RICOHA Project

- Title: Convergence model for One health approach: Exploring opportunities for control and management on zoonotic diseases of public health importance in Ahmedabad, India
- Investigators: Sandul Yasobant ^{MPhI} (Germany, India), Walter Bruchhausen ^{MD PhD} (Germany), Timo Falkenber ^{PhD} (Germany), Deepak Saxena ^{MD PhD} (India)
- Duration: June 2018- June 2020
- What is known?: OHA for zoonotic diseases, Collaboration under OHA (solution-based, third-party based & level based)
- Where is the gap?:
Is the health system resilient enough to adapt the OHA?
Where are the points of convergence and up to which extent this collaboration is possible??

Helena Chapman
OH-SS Publications: United, we are stronger!

In our OH-SS Community, together, our similarities and differences strengthen our collaborations:

- ❑ We have unique scientific expertise and training!
- ❑ We live in different states, regions, and countries!
- ❑ We speak more than one language!
- ❑ We study and work in various institutions across different sectors (academic, private, non-profit, government)!
- ❑ We have unique professional networks!

OH-SS Publications:
Focused collaborations using small working groups

Together, we can form small working groups to:

- ❑ Develop and submit brief reports or review articles
 - Letter to an Editor
 - Editorial or Commentary
 - Review article
- ❑ Prepare and submit abstracts for upcoming conference poster or oral sessions:
 - University seminars or symposiums
 - Local community events
 - National or international conferences

Séverine Thys, Hans Keune, and Aurélie Binot

- Organization of a session on social science/transdisciplinarity at the "Creating impact for One Health and Ecohealth: advancements in implementation, evaluation, and governance" conference in Bologna, Italy

Facilitated Discussion

Where would the group like to start?

Consider:

- Alignment
- Leadership
- Goals
- Resources
- Timing
- Other factors?

Next Steps

- Next meeting: March 12, 2018, 10:00-11:00 am EST
- Respond to workgroup sign-up survey
- Goal: subgroup meeting before next OH-SS meeting
